

Mars Area Elementary
National Library Week Celebration
April 8 -12, 2019

In honor of National Library Week, Mars Area Elementary will be celebrating the week of April 8th – 12th.

1. There will be themed days
2. Each Grade will have a ONE DAY coin war on Wednesday, April 10th
3. D.E.A.R. (Drop Everything And Read) times during each day; therefore, check with your student to make sure they have a book to read.

The themed days will be as follows:

Monday, April 8th – Patriotic Day (2nd Grade wear red/3rd Grade wear blue/4th grade wear white)
Tuesday, April 9th – Crazy Hair Day
Wednesday, April 10th – Wear a shirt you can read
Thursday, April 11th – Crazy Sock Day
Friday, April 12th - Mars Spirit Day (wear blue and yellow)

Coin War:

Wednesday, April 10th – students will donate coins in the library (pennies, nickels, dimes, and quarters), with all proceeds going to the Mars Public Library. The grade with the most coins donated will win a prize!

D.E.A.R. – Drop Everything And Read – during each day, Monday-Friday, a random time will be chosen and dedicated to reading. Students and Teachers will D.E.A.R. for 15 minutes.
