Special Population and Children under 12 Fishing Area

Tuesday, April 21st through Saturday, May 2nd

The area of Buffalo Creek that runs through Chicora Borough Park will be designated for use by Special Populations and Children age 12 and under for a period of two weeks. The dates are from Tuesday, April 21st through Saturday, May 2nd. This "Children under 12 and Special Population only area" is designed to promote fishing for youth and special populations. This area is specifically restricted to those children age 12 and under, and for special needs populations. No other fishing will be permitted. The Butler County Parks and Recreation Department will restock the creek with trout before the Youth and Special Population dates take effect. The effort to provide this designated fishing area is provided by the Butler County Parks and Recreation Department, Chicora Borough Council, and the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission. Visit our website at <https://bcpr.recdesk.com> for more information.
